

Lesson 9

The Media

Activity 2

Think of an invention or innovation that has yet to be invented. How can this invention benefit society, and what are some of the unanticipated harms? For example, think about cars that can drive themselves. While this invention would ideally keep drivers safe and reduce accidents, we can all imagine other complications that could arise.

---